Anthony von Mandl, Doctor of Laws, honoris causa
Bedriská v. Mandl, Doctor of Fine Arts, honoris causa

This program was prepared in advance of the ceremony and may not reflect last-minute updates. In the event of a discrepancy between this program and the Capilano University graduation roll, the graduation roll shall be taken as correct.

Capilano University honours the Territories of the Líl'wat, xʷməθkʷəy̓əm (Musqueam), shíshálh (Sechelt), Skwxwú7mesh (Squamish) and Səlilwətaʔ/Selilwitulh (Tsleil-Waututh) Nations upon which our campuses are located.

CONGRATULATIONS

PAUL DANGERFIELD
President & Vice-Chancellor

As our newest Capilano University graduates, you are embarking on an exciting path towards a hopeful future.

Within each of you are the values that have inspired the University's vision for the next few years. These values of innovation, commitment and collaboration are reflected in the sacrifices you've made to turn your goals into reality. By earning your credentials, you've shown a commitment to lifelong learning and a willingness to adapt and do things differently. Through your hard work, I hope you have found a path towards a life filled with purpose and success as defined by you.

I hope your CapU experience has given you a sense of pride in what you have accomplished and the confidence to pursue the opportunities to come. Your learning, growth and progress will continue long after you leave our campuses and will carry on as you develop in your career.

Now, more than ever, I urge you to stay curious and be creative. Curiosity can inspire imaginative approaches in everything you do. And in graduating, you are joining a network of alumni who are doing just that.

Enjoy your future success.

Paul Dangerfield
President & Vice-Chancellor
Capilano University

YURI FULMER
Chancellor

Congratulations to you for reaching this triumphant milestone. Indeed, graduating after a year of pandemic is a triumph—a demonstration of your perseverance and determination. It is a testament to all of you that as a University community, we have found innovative ways to come together to celebrate the time-honoured traditions of Convocation. I hope you take this opportunity to reflect and take pride in your success.

Convocation is also a time to celebrate with the people who journeyed with you along your path of learning and self-discovery. University life is challenging, and along the way you were supported by family, friends and classmates. Your instructors were also there to encourage you to finish and finish well.

As you leave Capilano University, be confident in knowing your education is valued in today's ever-changing world. Wherever your life may take you, you have the skills and creative thinking to become the innovators and self-assured leaders that our society needs moving forward.

I hope you remain connected and continue to make a positive impact in our University community and the wider world. May your successes today be a source of confidence for you in the future. We are proud of you all.

Yuri Fulmer, OBC
Chancellor
Capilano University

BRITTANY BARNES
Chair, CUAA

On behalf of the Capilano University Alumni Association (CUAA), it is my pleasure to congratulate you on your academic and personal achievements. We are so proud to welcome another graduating class of CapU alumni into our community.

Today, you join a diverse and talented network with a global reach of more than 95,000 CapU alumni. As you enter this new chapter, we want you to know that the CUAA is here to support you through lifelong learning, professional development and exclusive alumni benefits. In fact, your CapU journey does not end here; it continues through the CUAA.

We encourage you to stay connected by making sure we have your most recent contact information, and by learning about the CUAA and how we can help you continue to thrive (visit capilanou.ca/alumni). By being an active member of the CUAA, you can take advantage of your new global network of colleagues, community members and friends.

Once again, congratulations on successfully completing your journey from student to alumni. We hope you keep in touch!

Warm regards,

Brittany Barnes
Chair
Capilano University Alumni Association

FACULTY EMERITUS

NOGA GAYLE, PHD

Noga Gayle taught for 32 years as an instructor of sociology and women's studies at Capilano University. She is a widely published scholar in the fields of sociological theory, sociology of the Third World, media and society and women's studies—all through a social justice lens. Gayle introduced students to perspectives from the intersection of gender, race, class and ideology that would inspire their own critical scholarship and social action.

Her publications have contributed to broadening academic literature through compelling analyses of racism as an ideology and furthered the sociological dialogue with thoughts and ideas that continue to resonate, both within academia and throughout the wider world.

Gayle passionately advocated for the development of sociology offerings at the University. She was a valued voice on various provincial post-secondary committees that helped to establish both the rigorous scholarship and the excellence in teaching for which Capilano University is increasingly known.

Since retiring in 2009, Gayle has continued to provide transformational leadership by way of her involvement with the University Women's Club and the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom. She is a vocal advocate for the rights of Indigenous and other marginalized women, and exemplifies how upholding values of inclusion, equality and respect for human rights can benefit individuals, communities and the greater good.

“WE DON’T HAVE TO ENGAGE IN GRAND, HEROIC ACTIONS TO PARTICIPATE IN THE PROCESS OF CHANGE. SMALL ACTS, WHEN MULTIPLIED BY MILLIONS OF PEOPLE, CAN TRANSFORM THE WORLD.”

HOWARD ZINN
HISTORIAN, AUTHOR AND CIVIL RIGHTS ACTIVIST
(1922–2010)

STUDENT SPEAKER

JESSICA LIO
Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting
Faculty of Business & Professional Studies

Jessica Lio has made the most of her time at Capilano University. While completing her Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting, she was recognized on the Dean's List for three terms and the Merit List for nine.

As a student, Lio was proud to engage in CapU's vibrant campus community. She immersed herself as a writer and editor for the student newspaper, the Capilano Courier, where she connected with peers who embodied diverse backgrounds and perspectives. As well, she sang in the Capilano University Festival Chorus and tutored business students through the Capilano Accounting Association.

After graduation, Lio is looking forward to joining PwC's risk assurance practice and pursuing her CPA designation. She hopes to make an impact—both in her career and in the community that is centred on inclusion and equity—helping people in low-income and marginalized communities to develop financial literacy skills, and advocating for reconciliation and supporting Indigenous sovereignty across Turtle Island. She is also inspired to improve access to mental health care and resources and to empower youth to create meaningful change in their communities.

Lio credits her family and friends for supporting her through this journey, and the faculty and staff at Capilano U who took the time to make her feel seen and heard over the last six years.

OUR TRADITIONS

THE COAT OF ARMS

Supporters

A bear in blue with light blue wings is depicted on each side of the shield. Each bear stands on a rocky base.

In local First Nations cultures, bears are symbols of strength and are a link between the natural and supernatural realms. In medieval bestiaries, bears were said to give shape to their own young; therefore, bears represent the ‘forming’ of the young—a metaphor for education. The wings refer to the idea of aspiration and can allude to ravens, recognized for their intelligence and creativity by local Indigenous Peoples. The rocky base refers to the nearby Coast Mountains, which are a dramatic aspect of the local landscape.

Crest

Two books with blue binding and white pages are stacked with their bottom edges visible. On either side are several maple leaves and dogwood flowers, all in white. This is set on a wreath of twisted cloth in white, light blue and blue.

The books are a traditional symbol of education and the arrangement is inspired by the corporate emblem used when we were Capilano College. The maple leaves and dogwood flowers make reference to the fact that the University is located in British Columbia, Canada.

Arms

The main part of the shield is white and frames the image of a salmon. Salmon are an important feature of local wildlife and is shown here in the artistic style of Coast Salish Peoples. The waves at the bottom of the shield indicate the University’s location near the Pacific Ocean and the top section represents the nearby Coast Mountains.

MACE

The mace depicts the authority vested in the University to grant degrees and also incorporates the history and tradition that surrounds both the territory near our regional campuses and the vision of Capilano University.

The mace’s design portrays the unique territorial qualities of our region, which extends from Deep Cove to Mt. Currie to Earls Cove on the Sunshine Coast. These qualities include references to the animal world, to the landscape, to directional symbolism and to the human element. The mace is carved from yew, which is a natural wood found in our region.

Responsibilities for bearing the mace originated in the office of the Bedellus, or Beadle, and date back to the University of Glasgow, which was founded in 1451.

The function of the Bedellus was to keep the students in order, and on the days of public functions, he arranged the seats for dignitaries.

The duties of the Bedellus have varied greatly over the centuries. In the 17th and 18th centuries, the incumbent was required to regulate bonfire settings and purchase university supplies. Officially, the Bedellus is responsible for administration of the university’s facilities.

The most prominent role of the Bedellus was and continues to be on ceremonial occasions, leading the academic procession and carrying the university mace. In 2021, our ceremonial mace will be carried by Stephen Williams, vice-chair of the Capilano University Senate.

GONFALONS

Gonfalons are banners suspended on a crossbar. They are one of the traditional components of academic ceremonies that lend colour and dignity to processions and stages. At Capilano University, gonfalons are used in the Convocation ceremonies and represent each of the University’s five faculties: Faculty of Arts & Sciences (teal), Faculty of Business & Professional Studies (dark blue), Faculty of Education, Health & Human Development (orange), Faculty of Fine & Applied Arts (red) and Faculty of Global & Community Studies (light green).

LEGACY CANOE

In celebration of our 50th anniversary in 2018, CapU commissioned Squamish Nation master carver Ses siyam (Ray Natraoro) to build a traditional Coast Salish canoe as a legacy for future generations and a symbol of the University’s commitment to Truth and Reconciliation.

The 30-foot-long seaworthy canoe, named Skw’cháys in the Squamish Nation language, was carved at the North Vancouver campus in the winter of 2019, giving students, employees and the community the unique opportunity to witness the transformation from tree to canoe, and learn first-hand about Coast Salish traditions and culture.

Capilano University is on a pathway of learning how to be a responsible Canoe Family, and how to honour its ongoing relationship with Skw’cháys.

REGALIA

The chancellor and vice-chancellor robes are based on traditional academic ceremonial gowns. Capilano University’s chancellor’s gown is black brocade with a woven dogwood flower motif, trimmed in gold brocade and edged with royal blue silk trim.

The dogwood is British Columbia’s official flower. The four gold bands on both the upper and lower gothic sleeves represent CapU’s four-decade history as a college before becoming a university.

The vice-chancellor’s robes are in the same black brocade with the dogwood motif, trimmed in silver brocade and edged with royal blue silk.

The robes were designed by Jane Still from CapU’s Costuming for Stage and Screen program in the School of Motion Picture Arts. They were built by Deborah Gyug, a master of costume construction.

HOW CAPILANO UNIVERSITY GOT ITS NAME

In 1968, residents of the North Shore submitted names for the newly formed regional college operating on the grounds of West Vancouver Secondary School. The name Capilano honours Sa7plek (Chief Joe Capilano), a well-known Coast Salish carver, a spokesperson on history and culture, and an advocate for education.

Born in 1850, Sa7plek was a respected leader and chief of the Skwxwú7mesh (Squamish) Nation. Skwxwú7mesh is a reference to ‘people of the sacred water,’ as the Squamish River was well-known for its curative qualities. Capilano University’s North Vancouver campus sits on Skwxwú7mesh territory, which encompasses parts of the Lower Mainland and Sea-to-Sky Corridor.

In 1906, Sa7plek led a delegation of chiefs to England, with the intention of meeting with King Edward VII. While there, he was introduced to Canadian poet Pauline Johnson. They became good friends and after she moved to B.C.’s West Coast, Sa7plek shared his legends, which she later recounted in her books and poetry.

Capilano University was named after Sa7plek (Chief Joe Capilano) of the Skwxwú7mesh (Squamish) Nation. Photo (taken in 1906) courtesy of the North Vancouver Museum and Archives.
